Course Student Learning Outcomes

- Apply learned architectural concepts from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE to new design.
- Analyze historical architecture from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE, recognize and name architectural concepts, applications, parts, materials and technology.
- Evaluate the work of architects from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE in its historical and societal context.
- Define historically relevant architectural vocabulary and verbiage from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE.
- Create relationships by comparing and contrasting architectural concepts from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE.
- Evaluate how architecture was placed from 3500 BCE to 1200 CE and how it affected the site around it.

Course Prerequisites

There are no pre-requisites for this course.

Transfer/Certification/Licensure/Employment Information

This course transfers to the University of Utah as ARCH 3210 Survey of World Architecture I.

Engagement Plan

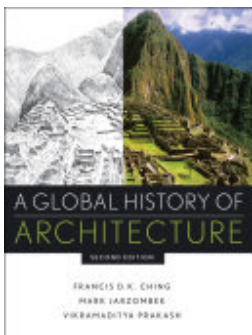

- I will respond to email within 24-48 hours on business days.
- Emails received over the weekend will receive a response on the following Monday.

- I will offer feedback on major assignments within 7-14 days of the assignment due date.
- The best way to contact me is via the Canvas Inbox, as I will prioritize this email over other modes of communication.

Keys for Success (how to succeed in the course)

- Students are expected to do readings, read articles, watch videos, and do all assignments as required per until of each module.
- Students are expected to log into course at least once a week to complete assignments. As a 3 credit class, you should expect 6-9 hours of homework a week.
- Show respect for Instructor and your peers in this course

Brief Description of Assignments/Exams

An explanation and instructions for each assignment are below.

Vocabulary

The vocabulary words listed in each Unit are words taken directly from your textbook reading. By reading the textbook you will introduced to the context in which the words are used. Take the phrase using each vocabulary word directly from the textbook to show you have completed your readings.

If you would like more context or information on these words, you can use these resources to further your understanding of the terminology:

Merriam-Webster: America's Most Trusted Dictionary Links to an external site.

Dictionary.com | Meanings & Definitions of English Words Links to an external site.

Cambridge Dictionary | English Dictionary, Translations & Thesaurus Links to an external site.

Oxford Learner's Dictionaries | Find definitions, translations, and grammar explanations at Oxford Learner's Dictionaries Links to an external site.

Quiz

All quizzes are associated with the videos or readings provided in each Unit. Watch the entire video and/or complete listed readings. You will find all quiz answers in these content elements. Some video narrations may be harder to understand than others so use the captioning in the videos provided.

Video Screenshot Questions

In some quiz questions, you will be required to watch the video and provide a screenshot of the image described. There are many ways to achieve this in different devices, but here are some general instructions:

1. Pause the video at the moment it shows the required image based on the provided description.
2. Use a "print screen" type tool available in your device. For Windows, you may use the "Snipping Tool" app . Some computer keyboards have a "print screen" button that allows you to copy to the clipboard.
3. Upload the image to the Canvas assignment either as a JPG or a PDF

Analysis

The analysis assignments are meant as quick practice for the type of analysis that will be used in the midterm and final. Choose one of the topics and write a paragraph that illustrates how the unit building represents the topic chosen.

Images

There are multiple image assessments and each assessment has differing instructions and purpose. A few of the assignments will require the use of images. If you have accessibility concerns about being able to fulfill these assignments, please reach out to the professor.

Image Diagram

In this type of assignment you will be required to use ThingLink to place words on an image.

- A. Find the word context by doing the assigned reading.
- B. Find the word definition by researching its meaning.
- C. Place the word on the spot in the image that illustrates its meaning .

Midterm

Each building analysis assignment has provided you practice for this larger analysis paper. The Midterm will be set up as a timed quiz, so you will only have 90 minutes to complete the writing requirements. Be sure you have studied each building in the modules leading up to this Midterm. You will not know which buildings you will be analyzing and comparing until you have started the quiz. The Midterm will only include buildings from modules 1-5. A more in-depth explanation of this assignment can be found on the assignment page.

Final

Each building analysis assignment has provided you practice for this larger analysis paper. The Final will be set up as a timed quiz, so you will only have 90 minutes to complete the writing requirements. Be sure you have studied each building in the modules leading up to this Final. You will not know which buildings you will be analyzing and comparing until you have started the quiz. The Final will only include buildings from modules 6-10. A more in-depth explanation of this assignment can be found on the assignment page.

Late Work Policy

- Most assignments have a due date set and remain available for exactly three days past that due date.
- Anything turned in after the due date, and before the "available until" date is considered late, and it will be penalized 5% of the grade per day that it is late.
- Three days after the due date, assignments are locked and will not be opened again.
- Not all assignments remain available past the due date. Pay attention to each assignment individually.
- Please turn in your work ON TIME. You are encouraged to turn your work in before the due date.
- This is a quick-moving semester, so stay on top of your assignments.
- Extra credit is not available.
- Not all assignments remain available past the due date. Pay attention to each assignment individually.
