

Advanced Molecular Methods

BTEC - 2200 301

Course Description

This course teaches principles of quantitative PCR and mutagenesis.

Prerequisite: BTEC 2020 with a grade of B or better.

Semester: All

Course Student Learning Outcomes

- Conduct a scientific experiment using gene quantitation methods.
- Change the functionality of a protein through mutagenesis. (Note: this requires use of online genetic information databases.)

Engagement Plan

Example language:

- I will respond to email within one day. I will offer feedback on major assignments within one week. The best way to contact me is via the Canvas Inbox, as I will prioritize this email over other modes of communication.
- In this course I will be posting interactive announcements which will offer specific opportunities for class questions and extra credit every other week.
- Additionally, I will be participating in the discussion forums with you to share my perspective within the discipline and to offer some nuances of interpretation that may not be present in your textbook.

- Lastly, we'll be holding small group Q & A sessions, where we can learn from our peers (and faculty) on some of the more difficult units within the course.

Brief Description of Assignments/Exams
