

Drafting & Space Utilization

INTD - 1100 001

Course Description

This course will introduce the principles and techniques of hand drafting, as well as the procedures and standard requirements of efficient space planning for residential and commercial interior design. Programming and schematic design development will be used in developing drawings typical for an Interior Design project.

Semester(s): All

Course Student Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate proficiency in hand drafting skills.
- Develop conceptual and schematic drawings.
- Demonstrate the ability to think visually and volumetrically.
- Create entry level industry standard drawings for interior design documentation and communication, including: floor plans, furniture plans, elevations, schedules, electrical, and reflected ceiling plans.
- Recognize the drawing types, symbols, and navigation used in a typical set of architectural construction documents.
- Apply creative and critical thinking skills to the development of an interior design project.
- Utilize efficient space planning techniques incorporating building codes and correct clearances for physical and mental well-being.
- Synthesize information through programming (interpreting client needs) to create an interior design project.

- Demonstrate professional discipline through time management and organizational skills.

Engagement Plan

Example language:

- I will respond to email within 1 week, but typically within 24 hours. I will offer feedback on major assignments within 1 week of the due date on Canvas. The best way to contact me is via the Canvas Inbox, as I will prioritize this email over other modes of communication.
- In this course I will be posting interactive announcements which will offer specific opportunities for class questions and extra credit every other week.
- Additionally, I will be participating in the discussion forums with you to share my perspective within the discipline and to offer some nuances of interpretation that may not be present in your textbook.
- Lastly, we'll be holding small group Q & A sessions, where we can learn from our peers (and faculty) on some of the more difficult units within the course.

Keys for Success (how to succeed in the course)
