Homework Assignments

Points will be deducted from assignments for spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors. The goal of taking business course is to prepare you for a professional career. No one will consider you credible or professional in ANY career if you cannot express yourself both verbally and in writing.

Preparation and Participation

The points below cover several factors that are important to know:

1. Due dates for all assignments must be met. Any late assignments up to a week will lose 50% of the total possible points for that assignment. A late assignment is one that is handed in after the class period ends on the specified due date. Where applicable, you are certainly encouraged to turn in assignments early; this is an important habit to establish as you continue to prepare for your career. I will not accept discussions, midterm or final after the due date.
2. The instructor reserves the right to adjust the daily schedule and the syllabus. Announcements will be made via Canvas if this were to happen.
3. There will be no make-up for final presentations, assignments or discussions unless prior arrangements are made with the instructor.

Engagement Plan

- I will respond to email within 24-48 hours for a response. I will offer feedback on major assignments within 1 week. The best way to contact me is via the Canvas Inbox, as I will prioritize this email over other modes of communication.
- In this course I will be posting interactive announcements which will offer specific opportunities for class questions.
- Additionally, I will be participating in the discussion forums with you to share my perspective within the discipline and to offer some nuances of interpretation that may not be present in your textbook.

Brief Description of Assignments/Exams

As your instructor and a student in this class, it is our shared responsibility to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. I take this responsibility very seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for him/her to carry out this task. As a fellow learner, I ask you to respect the learning needs of your classmates and assist me in achieving this critical goal.

Due to the nature of this class, points are earned through assignments, discussions and presentations. You will be responsible for all information provided on Canvas.

1) Discussions (20% of Grade) There are 11 online discussions assigned during the term. You can find them listed under the Modules tab in the left navigation. You are required to post your thoughts to the assigned topic, case or video and comment on at least one of your peer's posts to receive the points for the discussion. Discussions cannot be made up, so please submit them on time.

2) Assignments (35% of Grade) There are 9 assignments during the term. All of the assignments will be performed individually. The assignments may be updated as the semester progresses, and they can be found under the Modules tab in the left navigation. You may present your assignments up to one week after the due date, but the late policy (50% off) will apply. See the course Home for more information about the late policy.

3) Midterm Presentation (20% of Grade) The Midterm is worth 20% of your grade and is in the form of a presentation submitted on Canvas. This will be an informative speech. The details can be found in the Modules Tab.

4) Final Presentation (25% of Grade) Your final will be in the form of a presentation submitted on Canvas. You will be required to stand up, dress up and present your information to an audience of at least two other people. Details can be found in the Modules Tab. THE FINAL PRESENTATION CANNOT BE MADE UP.

5) Extra Credit Extra credit assignments may be randomly assigned throughout the course. Watch for announcements.
